IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Letter Correction

Dear Valued Guests and Travel Partners,

We've made an update to the departure time for Norwegian Breakaway's sailings on March 22, 2026, and March 29, 2026. Travel partners are kindly asked to ensure that impacted guests review this information.

It's come to our attention that the most recent communication included an incorrect reference to the port of Orlando–Beaches–Port Canaveral, FL. Unfortunately, no surprise trip to Orlando, FL, on this sailing! The correct reference should have been to Royal Naval Dockyard, Bermuda, as accurately reflected in the itinerary grid from that letter, and again below.

We sincerely apologize for any confusion this may have caused and aside from that mistaken reference, all other details previously shared remain accurate.

REQUIRED TRAVEL DOCUMENTATION

A passport, visa, and/or other documentation may be required for your cruise, depending on your nationality and itinerary. If traveling internationally, the countries you are transiting through to join your cruise may also have additional mandatory travel requirements. Printed travel documents must be presented at check-in on embarkation day. As it is your responsibility to secure all necessary documentation, any guest arriving without meeting the proper travel requirements or documentation may be denied boarding at embarkation.

For the most accurate and up-to-date information, we recommend visiting the official government and airport websites (if applicable), of the destinations you will travel to as well as <https://www.ncl.com/freestyle-cruise/cruise-travel-documents>. For assistance with visas, NCL has partnered with VisaCentral to provide you with comprehensive information, visa application kits, and assistance obtaining the necessary visas (if applicable).
