IMPORTANT INFORMATION
Voyage Cancellation

Dear Valued Guests and Travel Partners,

As we look ahead to Summer 2028, we're excited to expand the variety of experiences available across our fleet. As such, we will be modifying Norwegian Epic's current deployment. These thoughtfully designed voyages will offer a broader range of destinations and more time to enjoy the places guests love most. As a result of this new update, the March 31, 2028, voyage aboard Norwegian Epic, will no longer operate as planned and has been canceled. Travel partners are kindly asked to ensure impacted guests review this information.

For guests considering alternative options in the Caribbean, we're pleased to offer comparable sailings aboard Norwegian Breakaway and Norwegian Aqua, both of which will continue exploring this sought-after region. Both ships offer Caribbean voyages, visiting many of the same destinations you originally selected.

Alternative options:

Norwegian Aqua

April 2, 2028: 7-day Caribbean round-trip from Orlando: Bahamas & Cozumel

Norwegian Breakaway

March 29, 2028: 5-day Caribbean round-trip from Orlando: Great Stirrup Cay & Dominican Republic

Below, you'll find important details regarding what happens next:

A full monetary refund of the cruise fare paid will be automatically returned to the original form of payment used at the time of booking. No further action is required. Refunds will be processed within 30 business days, and funds typically appear on the original form of payment within seven to ten business days after processing, subject to your financial institution's policies. For reservations paid using a previously issued Future Cruise Credit (FCC), 100% of the FCC applied will be automatically reissued to your Latitudes account within 10 days of the cancellation date. No further action is required.

Future Cruise Credit (FCC)

We recognize this change wasn't part of your original travel arrangements, and as a token of our appreciation for your patience, we are pleased to offer a 10% Future Cruise Credit, valid toward any published sailing through December 31, 2028. This credit will be available beginning July 13, 2026, and we hope it helps bring you closer to your next unforgettable journey with us.
