IMPORTANT INFORMATION
Itinerary Change

Dear Valued Guests and Travel Partners,

The itinerary for your upcoming vacation on board Norwegian Joy on June 9, 2025, has changed. In addition, the departure time in Seattle, Washington, has been updated, and will now commence at 4:00 p.m., local time. Travel Partners are asked to share this information with impacted guests.

We strive to create vacation experiences that delight our guests, but occasionally issues arise, and our itineraries need to be altered. Sometimes, to improve efficiency and/or the guest experience, we may adjust the arrival and departure times at various destinations to provide a more seamless, immersive experience and to ensure punctual arrivals at each port on the itinerary. While changes may occur, rest assured that we are always working hard to provide you with a smooth and enjoyable journey.

We recognize the important role that destinations play in our guests' vacation decision-making process and assure you that these modifications were made with an optimal guest experience in mind. While we will no longer cruise Endicott Arm & Dawes Glacier, we are pleased to share that we have extended our time in Sitka and Juneau, Alaska, and we have added the experience of cruising Glacier Bay, Alaska. You will be treated to one of the most awe-inspiring natural wonders in the world. This UNESCO World Heritage Site offers breathtaking views of massive tidewater glaciers, pristine fjords, and dramatic snow-capped peaks. As Norwegian Joy navigates the serene waters, you can witness glaciers calving spectacularly into the sea and spot incredible wildlife, including humpback whales, sea lions, and the occasional bear along the shoreline.

In addition, we have added a visit to Icy Strait Point, Alaska, a dream destination for guests seeking authentic Alaskan experiences. You can immerse yourself in breathtaking natural beauty, encounter incredible wildlife like humpback whales and brown bears, and learn about the rich culture of the native Tlingit people.

Please note, we will now depart Seattle, Washington, at 4:00 p.m. local time. The revised itinerary is as follows:
