IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Itinerary Change

Dear Valued Guests and Travel Partners,

We're excited to welcome you aboard for your upcoming cruise with Norwegian Cruise Line. To help you prepare for a seamless start to your June 24, 2027, voyage on Norwegian Star, we're sharing an update to your itinerary following newly revised port availability. Travel partners are kindly asked to ensure impacted guests review the details below.

Even the most thoughtfully curated itineraries may require occasional updates, and while these moments can be unexpected, they also create opportunities to reimagine your journey in fresh and meaningful ways. Although we work closely with port authorities to confirm every detail far in advance, circumstances can still shift, and on occasion we are notified that space is no longer available. As fellow travelers at heart, we understand the disappointment changes can bring, and we appreciate your understanding.

As a result, we will no longer be calling on Liverpool, England, Newhaven (Edinburgh), and Invergordon, Scotland. In their place, we are delighted to welcome Kirkwall, Aberdeen, and South Queensferry (Edinburgh), Scotland. Kirkwall and Aberdeen offer opportunities to experience Scotland's rich Norse heritage, dramatic coastal landscapes, and vibrant cultural traditions. Just 20–30 minutes from Edinburgh and offering the same convenient access as Newhaven, South Queensferry provides a gateway to Scotland's historic capital and its many iconic landmarks. The good news is that all experiences previously offered ashore in Newhaven will still be available during our visit to South Queensferry, ensuring your time there remains just as special.

We have also fine-tuned the timing of our visits to Portree, Scotland, Belfast, Northern Ireland, Liverpool, England, Dublin (Dún Laoghaire), Ireland, and Cork (Cobh), Ireland, as well as Portland, England, to help you make the most of your time ashore. Your updated itinerary is below.
