IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Itinerary Change

Dear Valued Guests and Travel Partners,

We're excited to welcome you aboard for your upcoming cruise with Norwegian Cruise Line. To help you prepare for a seamless start to your August 15, 2027, voyage on Norwegian Star, we're sharing an update to your itinerary following newly revised port availability. Travel partners are kindly asked to ensure impacted guests review the details below.

Even the most thoughtfully curated itineraries may require occasional updates, and while these moments can be unexpected, they also create opportunities to reimagine your journey in fresh and meaningful ways. Although we work closely with port authorities to confirm every detail far in advance, circumstances can still shift, and on occasion we are notified that space is no longer available. As fellow travelers at heart, we understand the disappointment changes can bring, and we appreciate your understanding.

As a result, we will no longer be calling on Newcastle (Tyne), England, South Queensferry (Edinburgh), and Portree, Scotland. In their place, we are delighted to welcome Newhaven (Edinburgh) and Stornoway, Scotland to your itinerary. Just 20 to 30 minutes from Edinburgh and offering the same convenient access as South Queensferry, Newhaven serves as a gateway to Scotland's historic capital and its many iconic landmarks. The good news is that all experiences previously offered ashore in South Queensferry will remain available during our visit to Newhaven, ensuring your time there is just as special. Stornoway, located on the Isle of Lewis in the Outer Hebrides, invites you to experience Scotland's rugged natural beauty, rich Gaelic heritage, and warm island hospitality.

We have also fine-tuned the timing of our visits to Dublin (Dun Laoghaire), Ireland, Belfast, Northern Ireland, Invergordon, Scotland, and Amsterdam (Ijmuiden), Netherlands, to help you make the most of your time ashore. Your updated itinerary is below.
